

A scrapbook of wise and funny stories stitched together by the memories clothes can trigger! Writers of You've Got Mail and Sleepless in Seattle.

A zany whodunit of classical musical comedy and madcap mystery! One investigates. The other plays the suspects. Both play the piano!

In Van Gogh's own words, this heart-breaking yet tender exposé reveals the art and artist as few knew him. Stunning visuals of Vincent's work!

A Christmas Carol sequel? Turns out, one year after Scrooge's redemption, his ghosts have a new goal for him—to find love!

A desperate, out-of-work Elvis impersonator joins the outrageous drag show that replaced him. Almost a musical. Definitely a comedy!

Relive the Summer of Love. Let your "Hair" down. Join the age of "Aquarius" and "Let the Sunshine In."

A Pulitzer Prize-winning play about a working-class Black family in Chicago. The Broadway production won a Critic's Circle Award.

"On the Bayou"... "Your Cheatin' Heart"... "Hey Good Lookin'". No wonder Hank was country music's first superstar!

Women unite. Dreams blossom. Humorous and humanizing. An insider look at Latinx women overcoming the harsh realities of immigrant life. Para todos!

Love Dolly Parton? In this hair-sprayed musical romp, three scheming gals show their sexist, bigoted boss who's boss!